

HISTORY OF WILLIAM LOUIS AND ELIZABETH IVIE MURDOCH

William Louis Murdoch was born April 4, 1888 to William Murdoch and Mary Reid Lindsay, at Heber City, Utah. William Louis' father William was born in Gaswater, Ayrshire, Scotland July 3, 1825. He married Janet Lennox June 23, 1846 at old Cumnock, Ayrshire Scotland. Their children were; Elizabeth, James D., David Lennox, Mary, Janet and Margaret. All of these children were born in Scotland. Janet Lennox Murdoch died December 20, 1877 in Scotland and in 1878 William Murdoch came to Utah.

He married Mary Reid Lindsay in 1887 at Heber City, Utah. She was the widow of Samuel Lindsay and had four children by him as follows; William C., James Reid, Margaret, and Georgiana Lindsay.

William Murdoch and Mary Reid Lindsay had three children; William Louis Murdoch, Mary Murray and Lizzabell Murdoch Davis. Mary Murray Murdoch died of the flu on November 9, 1918. William Murdoch was quite robust even in his old age, and a very industrious man. He was 69 years old at the birth of Lizzabelle, his last child. He died March 12, 1913 at Heber City, Utah. His wife Mary died June 22, 1929 at Lorenzo, Idaho and was buried in Heber City, Utah also.

William Louis Murdoch attended the Heber City schools and at an early age began working in the mines at Park City, Utah during the winter months and doing general farm work during the farming season. While in Heber City he met and married Elizabeth Ivie of Center Creek on October 1, 1913 at Provo, Utah. They lived in Heber City. While there, two children were born, Marie Murdoch and Margaret Ellen Murdoch.

In 1916 they moved to Idaho making their home at Thornton. Here they purchased a forty acre farm in the Independence Ward and to them four more children were born; Jennett, Lennox Merl, Mary Ivie, and David Louis Murdoch.

Louis was an honest energetic man and a kind and loving father and a good neighbor. He was always willing to be of assistance to anyone in need. He, like all of us, was proud of his Scotch ancestry and he tried to live up to the teachings of his parents.

Louis, as he was always called, died December 6, 1937 at the age of 49 after a long illness with cancer, leaving his wife Lizzie, as she was always called, with the small family to care for in hard times and without much money. Their son David was only six and Mary eight at the time of his death. After Mary's graduation from high school she went to Idaho Falls, Idaho and got a job.

Later Lizzie sold the farm and moved to Idaho Falls to live with Mary as the rest of the family were all married; Marie to Lowell A. Safford, Margaret to Andrew J. Young, Jennett to Craig A. Hooper, Lennox to Joseph Wayne Case, and David Louis to Uvon Mortensen.

Lizzie died August 19, 1960 at the age of 68. Two of their children are deceased, Mary Ivie Murdoch December 10, 1968 and Marie Murdoch Safford May 9, 1980.

Louis and Lizzie had eleven grandchildren (See Descendant Chart) and 7 great grandchildren by 1980. We are proud today to pay tribute to our dear Murdoch "KIN". Let us who are left appreciate the heritage they have left us.
